Francfort, October 20.

YEsterday at 5 in the Afternoon, the Elector of Mentz arriv'd here with a Retinue of 3 Coaches, and was this day welcom'd by our Magistrates, and complemented with the usual Present of Wine. The D. of Marlborough is expected here this Morning, and the Elector of Hanover to Morrow: 'Tis said too that some other Princes and Envoys will come hither, to concert Measures for the operations of the next Campaign. The Enemy have summon'd in many Pioneers along the Honsdrug to go to Hombourg, to which Place they have likewise sent some Waggons.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Oct. 25.

Cologne, Oct. 20. On Tuesday in the Afternoon the Duke of Marlborough arriv'd at Dusseldorp and went to the House of M. Palmis: after which he went to the Palace to see the fine Pictures belonging to the Elector Palatin, and the Rarities in the Closet of the Electoress, being accompany'd by M. Schafsbourg, his Electoral Highness's first Minister of State. At six the next Morning he set out post from thence, and at his going away was saluted with a treble Discharge of the Cannon on the Ramparts of the City. He arriv'd in four Hours at Bruck, where the Elector Palatin receiv'd him with great Shew of Esteem and Affection: his Electoral Highness likewise treated him splendidly at Dinner, and they had a long Conference together: After which the Duke set out for the Post-House at Waard, with two of the Elector's Coaches and six Horses, and attended by a Party of his Horse-Guards; in order to pursue his Journey to Frankfort. 40 Dragoons of the Regiment of Walef were posted at Waard; a like Number at Weyerbos, and as many at Gilrath, for his Security; and he will likewise find fresh Guards at every Place where he Stops. The Elector of Triers has already sent Commissaries and his Life-Guards to Limbourg on the Lahn to receive him there, and conduct him to a certain Place on the Frontiers of the Electorate of Mentz. The Elector Palatin has sent Orders to the 7000 Men of his Troops that serve in Italy, to embark for Spain to succour King Charles in Catalonia.

London, October 27.

☞ Whereas all the Aldermen of London (that are Juſtices of the Peace) are by the Government thought neceſſary to do the Juſtice of the City, and 'tis well known that at leaſt half of them are generally out of Town. And the Lord Mayor by his Duty being bound to reſide in London, and not to lye out of it without ſpecial Leave from the Government, he ſupplies by his conſtant Attendance the Defects of his Brethren, and he being the chief Magiſtrate, moſt Buſineſs is brought before him; therefore it is thought by many hundred conſiderable Citizens that Sir John Buckworth Baronet, Citizen and Fiſhmonger of London, a Gentleman of unqueſtionable Loyalty and Ability, is the moſt proper Perſon to be Elected to ſerve this City in Parliament in the Room of Sir Robert Clayton deceas'd.

☞ Several Hundreds of Citizens having lately met to conſider how they may be beſt repreſented in Parliament, in the Room of Sir Robert Clayton deceas'd, by a Perſon well affected to Her Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and known to the Laws and Cuſtoms of the City; did unanimouſly agree upon the Right Honourable Sir William Withers Knight Lord Mayor Elect, (who formerly ſerv'd this City in the ſaid Station) they being well aſſur'd that he can attend the ſaid Service, (notwithſtanding his publick Station) without any prejudice or delay of Juſtice, there being 22 Aldermen and Mr. Recorder, Juſtices of the Peace for this City beſides his Lordſhip. N. B. Whereas it has been Advertis'd that half the Aldermen that are Juſtices of the Peace live generally out of Town, This is to ſatisfy all Citizens that there are but Four Aldermen whoſe Habitations are without the limits of the City.
